'everybody needs a wendy' - peter pan

Wendy can currently be heard Saturdays 12 – 3pm on London's LBC 97.3FM.

As an elected member of the London Film Critics Circle, she hosted their 2002 Awards at the Dorchester Hotel and the 2004 Royal Premiere of the Merchant of Venice. Wendy has performed over 40 stand up comedy gigs in London, and co-wrote and co-performed the comedy show "Asteroid Haemorrhoid" at the Gilded Balloon for the 1999 Edinburgh Festival. Her confidence as a live performer has made her a corporate favourite, hosting a variety of conferences and videos. Wendy's opinionated journalistic flair and expertise in Music and Film makes her a popular guest on topical debate shows, including Channel 5's The Wright Stuff, Newsnight and GMTV. A talented vocalist and songwriter, Wendy is currently recording and performing her own songs, and fronting a jazz band. She speaks French, German and Italian, plays guitar, and piano and is a BBC trained producer and reporter.
